

Gift Boxes & Wedding Favours

The White House

The White House

Our philosophy is simple: to make your wedding reception, birthday party, or event extra special by creating the most beautiful and imaginative gift boxes and keepsakes available.

You may be unfamiliar with the concept of wedding favours, or 'bomboniere' as they are referred to in Europe. Traditionally, these are keepsakes given to wedding guests as a "thank you" from the bride and groom. Each favour is traditionally filled with five sugared almonds or chocolates, symbolising Health, Wealth, Happiness, Longevity and Fertility. The natural bitterness of the almonds and the sweetness of the chocolate represent the bitter/sweet life of a married couple.

In this brochure, you will find a superb selection of boxes, organza bags, keepsakes, candles, stunning confectionery, gifts for gentlemen, children's goodies, and much, much more.

The White House is based in the heart of Worcestershire, using local suppliers wherever possible. All our favours are expertly hand tied with the greatest attention paid to detail. As we design and make our products in-house, we can accommodate even the 'wackiest' of ideas!
